Read this out loud daily.. work on journalling your own too if that feels good, use the manifestation blend with this- wild orange, patchouli and ginger

I attract builders and my leaders attract builders who fully feel the mission and vision of dōTERRA deeply in their entire being.

They are grounded into the earth and can feel the power, purity and potency of the plants and products.

They choose to fully commit to building a dōTERRA business and are all the way in immediately.

They powerfully move through anything that might hold them back to effortlessly bring even more amazing humans to workshops and business trainings.

They see the massive value in our incredibly generous loyalty rewards program and are passionate about overhauling their homes to remove synthetic products that damage their health and the environment and replace them with incredible dōTERRA products.

They love using our soaps, shampoo and conditioner, deodorant, toothpaste, cleaning and laundry products, MetaPWR and Lifelong Vitality daily and our amazing range of supplements plus of course are obsessed with the essential oils and have them on them all the time.

They consistently show up and are disciplined with a powerful growth mindset. They love building belief in others. Whether that's people in their own downline or in the wider dōTERRA community. They are collaborative, humble and heart centred but also back themselves FIERCELY and know their power, worth and value.

They are super duplicatable and are able to powerfully teach the people they bring in to embody all of the above as well. The hyper growth and momentum we create as a team is HUGE and each workshop and training we run grows bigger and bigger.

They rank advance consistently and consistently personally enroll people and are able to help them commit to loyalty rewards.
